

Lions Code of Ethics

TO SHOW my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

TO SEEK success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

TO REMEMBER that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

WHENEVER a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.

TO HOLD friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

ALWAYS to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor, and means.

TO AID others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

TO BE CAREFUL with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.

Mission Statement

*To create and foster
a spirit of understanding among all people
for humanitarian needs
by providing voluntary services
through community involvement and international cooperation.*

The Lions motto is “We Serve.”

Who are the Wheaton LIONS?

We are special men and women who are committed to community service.

We are part of an International group of 38,000 clubs with 1.3 million members working together as volunteers.

We are local leaders who maintain the highest standards of ethics in business.

What do the Wheaton LIONS do?

We attend a weekly, one hour Tuesday lunch meeting and hear speakers on a variety of interesting subjects.

We have 3 or 4 fund raising events annually to help the visually and hearing impaired.

We collect eyeglasses and hearing aids to improve the lives of needy people everywhere.

We offer college scholarship assistance to high school seniors with sight or hearing impairment.

We seek ways to be of service to the community.
